Greater Manchester, United Kingdom – 10th January 2025:

One Dimensional Creatures announce the release of their second CD-only limited edition EP, Welcome to Serfdom. Issued as a hand numbered run of just 50 copies, this exclusive release showcases the band's evolving sound and their commitment to DIY physical formats.

The EP features the singles 'Freedom is Hate', 'March in Line', and 'Hail the Crown', alongside the radio edit of March in Line. It also includes two previously unheard tracks — 'Blue Sky Red – The Invisible Hand of Adam Smith' and 'Servitude' — fan favourites from the band's live shows that now make their first appearance on record.

The physical release comes with a reversible cover: an original oil painting by Manchester artist Paul Wilson on one side, and a monochrome band photograph on the other. The six-track CD is available at live shows and online via the band's official website and Bandcamp for £5.

Bassist and backing vocalist, Ollie Chapman, says:

"The EP really shows our diverse sound as a band, the two unheard tracks show our softer, more intricate side, and then you've got the furious beasts that are our singles."

Fans who want the EP signing can next catch the band live in London at the Duck and Dive Festival at Signature Brew Haggerston on 26th January 2025.

About Paul Wilson (Cover Artist):

Paul Wilson is a Manchester based artist who was a founding member of the Emrbyo group, a group of painters, sculptors, and poets in the Manchester area in the 1970's. He has exhibited his work all over the UK and abroad. He is also the father of Ste Wilson, the lead vocalist and rhythm guitarist in One Dimensional Creatures.
