Oldham, Greater Manchester, UK — 19th May 2026:

One Dimensional Creatures announce that they will be moving forward as a power-trio. Long-time guitarist Chris Tighe (lead guitar, backing vocals) performed his final show with the band at the DMF Weekender in Dewsbury on Saturday 2nd May 2026. Chris is stepping back due to family and work commitments, and the band wish him nothing but the best.

The remaining members — Ste Wilson (lead vocals, guitar), Ollie Chapman (bass, backing vocals), and Piotr Ignatowicz (drums) — have already begun reshaping their sound as a three-piece. Ste has been sharpening his lead-guitar work and will now switch between rhythm and lead across the band's live set. As they move toward their second album, the trio are focusing on writing songs that hit hard live and reworking their growing back catalogue to suit the new format.

Lead singer and guitarist Ste Wilson says:

"We're obviously sad to see Chris go, but we're mega excited for the future of the band as a power-trio. We're not going to hold back on lead when writing songs — half the tracks on Tolerance Paradox have more than two guitar lines anyway. What we will be doing is making sure all our tracks, both old and new, sound massive on stage."

The band are now back in the practice room writing new material for their yet-to-be-named second album and preparing for upcoming shows as a three-piece. Fans can next catch the power-trio live at Northern Guitars Café Bar in Leeds on Saturday 30th May 2026.
